FRENCHBURG

PURPOSE

The Frenchburg Job Corps Center offers qualified young men and women an opportunity to gain job skills. If you qualify, the Center will help you improve your ability to get a job and advance in your career. The Center is organized to prepare you for the working world. You learn at your own pace while you attend classes and receive training in your selected vocation.

THE CENTER

The Frenchburg Job Corps Center is a Civilian Conservation Center in the Daniel Boone National Forest, 75 miles east of Lexington. The Center is located on State Highway 77, about 10 miles from Frenchburg, KY. It is coeducational and offers residential training. The Center can accommodate 168 men and women. You will live in one of three modern dormitory complexes. Each has a lounge area for visiting, reading, watching television and social activities. Laundry facilities are available on the Center. Most of the buildings on the Center have been built by students as part of their learning process. You will be pleased with the high quality of workmanship that has gone into the structures.

HEALTH CARE

You receive basic health care and medical services, including dental and eye care, as well as an initial examination when you arrive at the Center.

MEALS

You dine cafeteria-style in a bright, comfortable dining room. Meals are served three times a day on weekdays, with a hearty brunch and dinner on weekends.

PAY

In Job Corps you earn while you learn, starting at $50 a month. You may have a possibility of earning up to $80 a month. Raises are based on good performance, achievement and length of stay in the Job Corps. Payday is every 14 days.

Another $65 to $100 a month is set aside for you and, after you complete the program, it's used to help you begin your new job. You also get a $250 bonus for earning your diploma (GED). Another $250 bonus is paid to those who complete their vocational training.

CLOTHING

An annual clothing allowance of $317 will be given to you the first year of enrollment, with $103 for the second year.

In addition, all vocational and protective clothing such as rain gear, boots, hard hats, etc., are provided at no cost to you.

LEISURE TIME

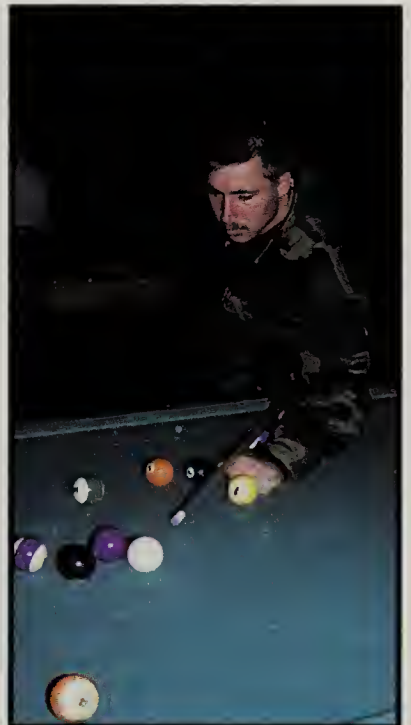

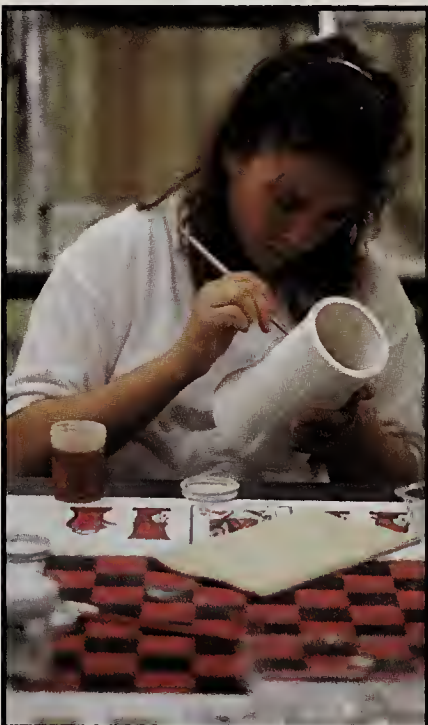

The Frenchburg Centers recreation program includes arts and crafts, sports activities, games and movies. Recreational activities will change with the seasons. The Center provides off-Center trips to various activities and various towns. Special leisure time recreational trips are scheduled. For example, you may attend professional sporting events, exhibitions, and musical shows. Admissions to many of these events are at reduced rates. Other activities include swimming, skating, dances and movies.
